

From: Bruce Campbell
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 1:31am
Subject: Proposed settlement with Microsoft

The proposed settlement does nothing to control the use of monopoly power by Microsoft to further expand its dominance of the software market. If Microsoft were required to document the API calls that their present and future office suites uses then other Operating systems could emulate Microsoft windows allowing customers more choices in the hardware and software that would be appealing to businesses.